

Our local and global resource teams specialize in developing and supporting websites built with the

Joomla! ® CMS (Content Management System)

and other open source technologies. Find out how we can help you manage your web resources or develop easy to use web applications for running your business or managing your organization resources online. Social communities, ecommerce, learning management, customer management, complex integrations and custom features are common practice for us.

Our design, programming and consulting support community is world class and we back this up with affordable web hosting optimized for Joomla, 24/7 technical support and an award winning team of training experts.

Call now! 1-508 644-1553

The CNP Integrations team is an industry leader for supporting these innovative technologies which put the control back into the hands of small business owners.

Our Value Building consulting approach and proven project planning processes allows us to provide world class Joomla CMS portal systems. In addition we can offer

Customer Relationship Business Management Solutions that Synchronize with QuickBooks and your Joomla CMS

.

We can integrate your online and offline business practices for complete transaction life cycle management and a complete 360 degree view of your organization with real time workflow automations.

We can help you reduce operational costs, boost sales and harness the power of social technologies. We have been able to help hundreds of small business owners deploy comprehensive technology and training to empower their business success.

“We are passionate about our technology solutions but believe technology by itself is flat and meaningless without the life and excitement of a collaboration team driving its success!” Let's get started on building your business with a Joomla! CMS and our CRBM Platform.